

Robert Craven - President - US Air Force

Born and raised in Philadelphia, Bob Craven moved to Bucks County in 1971. He proudly served in the U.S. Air Force from 1967 to 1971. Bob has been an active member of the Guardians of the National Cemetery for over 15 years and has served on the Board of Directors for more than a decade, including previous roles as Treasurer. He currently serves as President, leading the organization in its mission to honor veterans and preserve their legacy within the community.

A retired Senior Special Agent with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Bob completed a 34-year federal career and holds memberships in multiple professional associations, including the Federal Law Enforcement Officers Association (FLEOA) and the Association of Customs and Homeland Security Investigations Special Agents (ACHSIA). He also serves as a Peer Mentor with the Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS) and is Chairman of the Scott Craven Mentoring Foundation, fostering leadership and character in young people.

As a Gold Star father, Bob is deeply committed to educating youth and the community about the service and sacrifice of our nation's veterans. He has also been a Mentor with the Travis Manion Foundation's Character Does Matter program since 2011.
